Subject: RE: IMPORTANT - DRAFT Agricultural Water Measurement Regulation

Gentlemen – based on the proposed regulation dated March 18, 2011, I would have to provide a Fundamental Disagreement level of support. I'm afraid the regulation is too cumbersome and subject to too much interpretation for widespread acceptance by Ag water agencies as presently drafted. I believe that a coalition of Ag water agencies will be submitting recommended revisions to the regulation along with a rationale discussion on the recommended changes, which I support.

Regards,
